1. The Authors grant to Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory Press, for six months from the date of full-issue publication, the exclusive license (a) to publish, reproduce, distribute, display and store the Article in all forms, formats and media whether now known or hereafter developed (including without limitation in print, digital and electronic form) throughout the world; (b) to translate the Article into other languages, create adaptations, summaries or extracts of the Article or other derivative works based on the Article and exercise all of the rights set forth in (a) above in such translations, adaptations, summaries, extracts, and derivative works; (c) to license others to do any or all of the above; and (d) to register a DOI.

2. Ownership of copyright remains with the Authors (except US Government employees), and provided that, when reproducing the Article or extracts from it, the Authors acknowledge first publication in Genome Research, the Authors retain the following non-exclusive rights:

a) To reproduce the Article in whole or in part in any printed volume (book or thesis) of which they are the Author(s).

b) To reproduce the Article for the purpose of course teaching.

c) To post a copy of the Article, in the form of the PDF from Genome Research, on the Authors' own website, institutional repository, or funding agency's designated archive, six months after full-issue publication of the Article.

d) To reuse figures or tables created by them and contained in the Article in other works created by them.

3. The Authors also grant to Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory Press for six months after full-issue publication the same rights to publish the Supplementary Material that have been granted in respect of the Article as set out in clause 1 above.

4. The Authors warrant and represent that:

a) The Authors are the sole Authors of and sole owners of the copyright in the Article (except US Government employees). If the Article includes materials of others, the Authors have obtained the permission of the owners of the copyright in all such materials to enable them to grant the rights contained herein. Copies of all such permissions are attached to this license.

b) The Author who has signed this Agreement below has full right and authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of all of the Authors.

c) All of the facts contained in the Article are true and accurate.

d) Nothing in the Article is obscene, defamatory, libelous, violates any right of privacy or infringes any intellectual property rights (including without limitation copyright, patent or trademark) or any other human, personal or other rights of any kind of any person or entity or is otherwise unlawful.

e) Nothing in the Article infringes any duty of confidentiality, which any of the Authors may owe to anyone else, or violates any contract, express or implied, of any of the Authors, and all of the institutions in which work recorded in the Article was carried out have authorized publication of the Article.

5. The Authors acknowledge that six months after the full-issue publication date, the Article will be distributed under a Creative Commons CC-BY-NC License (Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International License, <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/>).

6. The Authors authorize Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory Press to take such steps as it considers necessary at its own expense in the Authors' name and on their behalf if it believes that a third party is infringing or is likely to infringe copyright in the Article including but not limited to taking legal action.

7. The Authors hereby consent to the inclusion of electronic links from the Article to third-party material wherever it may be located.

8. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States of America.

Signed for and on behalf of the Authors:

Dan E. Arking
